

ORCHESTRAL CONCERTS

Experience opera on a grand scale at the lake stage or at a concert. The Wiener Symphoniker will again perform part of Richard Wagner's Der Ring des Nibelungen. Conductor Karina Canellakis reprises her famed 2018 renditions in a passionate rendering of the love story between Brünnhilde and Siegfried with international soloists. Rigoletto conductor Enrique Mazzola complements the summer opera programme: The Emperor Nero is hailed under dark skies in Ottorino Respighi's sublime Römische Feste (Roman Festivals), preceded by a piece by Slovakian composer Ľubica Čekovská, a one-off evoking a completely different mood as an orchestral work. The Wiener Symphoniker principal conductor bids farewell with works by Beethoven and Richard Strauss; the new director of the Symphony Orchestra Vorarlberg presents himself with four soloists in Haydn's enchanting Sinfonia concertante and a new symphony by Thomas Larcher, whose opera Das Jagdgewehr captivated audiences in 2018.
